About Us

David Bierl's passion for great food and drink has driven him for the last 20 years. He has learned his craft in Boston, Seattle, and Chicago. Real Detroit Weekly dubbed him "Restaurant Guru" in 2002. David, in his fifth year as kitchen manager, is responsible for all kitchen operations.

Often, the most effective business meetings or group gatherings are those that take place in a social setting such as a sporting event. Well, the racetrack is the perfect place! Create strong alliances with clients or associates as you share your outside skills & business interests at Hazel Park Raceway!

In today's busy world, the task of planning a party for a large group can be cumbersome—from trying to decide how much food to prepare to ensuring that your guests are entertained for the evening. Let our expert staff assist you with those details, so that you can relax and enjoy the evening too!

All it takes is a phone call or email.
